Fees

My fees are £6 per hour, which will be invoiced and needs to be paid a month in advance. I provide nappies and wipes. I am closed at weekends and bank holidays.

Funding

As childminders receive our payment from the government at the beginning of each term, funded children cannot change provider mid-term, so must stay with me for the whole term: Spring, Summer or Autumn. Due to the amount per hour that we receive from the government for 3 and 4 year olds, currently I require a £1 top up for each hour that funded children are at my house. I only offer standard funding for term time only. Each term has a different number of weeks that funding is offered, if you require childcare on days that it doesn't offer then normal fees will apply.

Late fees and late child collection:

I will charge £2 per day if your fees are late.

If your child is not collected on time, I will need to charge double fees in half hour increments.

Fees for Absences

If I am ill, I will refund your fees.

If you or the child is ill, fees will still be payable.

Holidays

A minimum of 4 weeks' notice to be given by myself and parents of forthcoming holidays, otherwise normal payment fees will be due.

Deposit

This will hold the place open and be deducted from the fees when childminding starts.

This is to be paid once the application has been completed.

Deposit held: £100

Date Payment due: The last day of each month.

Notice period of changes to contract or termination of Contract is 4 weeks:

To end the childminding agreement, 4 weeks' notice in writing is to be given by the parents or the childminder, otherwise normal payment fees will be due.

Settling in Period

A settling in period of 2 weeks is offered, during which time the notice period does not apply.

Parents or childminder have the right to terminate the contract immediately and without prejudice in the following circumstances: (Either party reserves the right to request legal advice in the case of contract termination.)

- Non-compliance with policies and procedures
- Non-payment of fees
- Child behaviour that does not improve after consistent support from parents and childminder
- Behaviour which is not conducive to a safe working environment
- Non-compliance with the contract
